MACFARLANE FOR DOLE

"There has gone forth an erroneu Impression in the United States to the effect that a strong sentiment exists in the Territory of Hawaii against the retention of Governor Dole," said F. W. Macfarlane of Honolulu, at the Rhoreham.

Mr. Macfarlane Is one of the leading capitalists in the Islands, and is largely identified with banking and planting interests. He is chairman of the commission charged with the responsible task of adjudicating the claims originating in the fires started to combat the plague which ravaged Hopolulu in the winter of 1960-1901, and wiped out the homes and business houses of many Japanese and Chinese residents.

"I want to say," he continued, "that in spite of all the reports that have been put in circulation here, Governor Dole's administration has the strong endorsement and hearty support of the very best citizenship of Hawaii. The solid business men are with him, for they recognize that he has been an able and upright official, and has done as well as any man could under existing conditions. He has likewise the
